BIOGRAPHICAL: The Saalfield Publishing Company was founded in 1900 by Arthur J. Saalfield who had come to Akron to take over the publishing department of the Werner Company. The Werner Company wished to discontinue the publishing end of the business, and Mr. Saalfield acquired it. Although Saalfield published books on diverse subject matter, Mr. Saalfield recognized the dearth of good books for children. Saalfield soon became one of the largest and most important publishers of children's books.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: This collection consists of books that were published by the Saalfield and Werner Publishing Companies, Akron.

ARRANGEMENT: In alphabetical order by author's last name.

NOTE: These books are listed in alphabetical order by author, and then by title. Books that showed no specific author are interfiled by title. Oversized coloring books and puzzles are located at the very end.
