"THE DIAMOND LIGHT"
LAMPS AND LANTERNS
The Diamond Light is manufactured in many designs to meet varying needs. Burns gasoline or kerosene. These wonderful lamps operate on less than half the fuel required for one ordinary wick lamp and give almost 100 times more light. Brighter and cheaper than electricity or gas. Save a soft, warm 300 candlepower light, easy on the eyes and beautifully brilliant for the home. Absolutely safe, as there is no danger even if upset. Easy and simple to operate, and needs practically no attention except occasional filling—no wicks to trim, no chimneys to clean. They are unbreakable and odorless. Unscented for farm homes, cottages, etc.

FOREWORD

CENTENNIAL EDITION

In presenting the 1925 Centennial edition and Volume 46 of the Akron City Directory, we are pleased to call attention to the enlargement and improvement in the make-up of this issue, made necessary by the growth in population and increasing business generally. At the same time it is a move toward standardizing the Directory to conform with other Directories throughout the country in arrangement of contents, etc.

We feel assured this change will meet with the hearty approval of our many loyal patrons.

This issue represents a careful personal canvass of the territory covered and embodies a complete record of the civic, commercial and social interests, in what will soon be known as "Greater Akron".

We have included all of the essential features which have proven so desirable in previous issues, and have added improvements as suggested by experience and a constant aim to make the work as complete and comprehensive as possible.

A most valuable and outstanding feature of this issue is the Classified Business and Professional Advertising Department printed on special tinted paper, which includes advertisements of many leading business and professional interests.

These advertisements have been carefully grouped by departments and are page-indexed direct from both the alphabetical and classified listings, doing away with obscure references used in past issues. In a manner, they are not display advertisements, but rather—REFERENCE ADVERTISING AT ITS BEST.

A casual reference to these advertisements will picture many interesting phases of the city and the people who are building a greater Akron.

We wish to call attention and impress upon our patrons the fact that we maintain A DIRECTORY LIBRARY embracing recent issues of Directories of most of the leading cities throughout the United States and Canada and a cordial invitation is extended to make use of this Free service.

As the matter of population is always interesting and naturally enters into the make-up of the City Directory, we have accordingly made a careful count of the individual names in the Akron alphabetical list and find a total of 96,754, this number multiplied by two (2) to cover children under 15 years of age, and married women not included in the above figures, would indicate a present population of 193,508, a gain of 7,744 since our 1924 issue.

By a similar count and estimate Kenmore shows a population of 13,086, Barberton, 19,920, Cuyahoga Falls, 12,288 We have added Stow to the Cuyahoga Falls list which swells the population figures accordingly.

The publishers wish to express sincere thanks for the generous patronage and co-operation extended them in the preparation of this volume.

Akkron this year celebrates its Centennial Anniversary. Its growth has come quite largely through the wisdom of those early pioneers in selecting a location for the first settlement near the junction point of the Little and the Big Cuyahoga Rivers. Its first progress came through the construction of the Ohio and the Pennsylvania-Ohio Canals, which furnished a junction point here for the transportation system which in those days brought the products of the soil, the clay bank, and the mines, to Akron, and conveyed them on to Lake Erie at Cleveland.

According to the United States Census, Akron's population had increased to 2,866, by 1850. During the next half century, Akron's population showed a constant and large increase, as the census of 1900 gave the city a population of 42,728. This number had increased, by 1910, to 65,067.

Then, during the next decade, through the remarkable development of the rubber industry, Akron showed a larger gain in percentage of population than any other city of its size in the United States. The census of 1920 gave Akron a population of 208,435.

Owing to the country-wide financial depression, which started during the latter half of 1920, Akron suffered a loss in population during the following year.

How well Akron has regained its industrial strength and commercial progress is reflected by the population of 193,508 for 1925, as estimated by the Burch Directory Company.

An interesting record showing Akron's rapid growth and industrial activities is shown by a comparison of the industrial figures of 1912 with those of 1924. The Akron factories in 1912 gave employment to 33,970 persons and the value of their combined output was $122,718,000. In 1924 the industries in Akron employed over 53,000 people, with a combined payroll of $83,704,000, and the value of their manufactured products aggregated $433,527,000.

A most interesting phase of the city's growth during the first six months of this Centennial year is shown by the figures of the City Building Inspector's office. During the first six months of this year building permits were issued for 1,072 homes, totaling in value $4,957,376, while during the entire twelve months of 1924 the total number of building permits issued for homes was 1,138, with an aggregate value of $5,125,010.

Another interesting comparison is that shown by the postoffice receipts. During the twelve months ending June 30th, 1920, the receipts of the Akron Postoffice totaled $112,647, while during the first six months of 1925 they aggregated $639,738.

Inquiries concerning any phase of industrial activity, factory sites, business opportunities and other matters regarding Akron will be cheerfully furnished by

Department
OF THE
AKRON CITY DIRECTORY
1925

The prime object of a City Directory is to direct, this department, however, is devoted especially to directing the Buyer to the Seller. In a bustling, growing city like Akron, the need for such convenient reference is very great, and the appreciation is evidenced by the wholesome list of business representations in the pages which follow.

We wish to call attention to our Directory Library, consisting of City Directories from all parts of the United States, and some of the more important Canadian Cities. These Directories are for the use of our Patrons and the public in general. This service is free.

YOUR HEATING SYSTEM is the most important part of your home

Your verdict in the selection of a Heating Plant is, we believe, the most important decision you will make in choosing the equipment of your home.
Why?
Because it determines the health and comfort of your family.
Ask our heating engineer to give you the benefit of his science.
This places you under no obligation, and secures you the services of an expert.
We also do Repairing.

GENERAL
—goes a long way to make friends

That owners look on the GENERAL Cord as a tire which enhances the beauty of their cars—that they enjoy its comfort—and that they take as much pride in its name as they do in the make of cars they choose—is perhaps quite as important as its reputation for giving unusually long service.

If only he knew where to look

Lots of folks hunt the hard way for information that is right at hand, if they knew where to look.

They buy with part knowledge of those who sell; they guess at addresses; they waste postage and misspell names.

* * * all of which might be avoided by learning how to use the scientific compilation of information in the City Directory.

DO NOTS

Do Not put your Directory in an 'out-of-the-way place, but keep it where you can find it quick.

Do Not think that a Directory is paying for itself unless you use it, any more than an idle dollar or clerk can make you money.

Do Not get mad when a customer asks to look at your Directory.

Do Not look happy when a neighbor wants to borrow your Directory, for if you do, he will borrow it again; and if all were borrowers, when would the next Directory be published?

Do Not forget that an up-to-date city must have a Directory and a merchant that has no Directory is what?

Do Not forget that a Directory borrower today will forget to return it tomorrow and you call him what?

Do Not forget that the man who has a Directory pays for it and the borrower gets for nothing what another man pays for. What do you call him?
