Fun Family History PROJECTS

- Make a family tree.
- Make a family cookbook. Collect favorite recipes from family members and put them in a notebook. Be sure to include a little information about each cook!
- Write a biography of yourself. Include things like:
 - A description of where you live
 - Funny stories
 - How you celebrate holidays
 - Your favorite books or magazines, music, television programs, movies, and games
 - Your best friend
 - Vacations
 - School

- Keep a journal to record both the daily activities and significant events of your life.

- Collect or borrow family photographs. Make copies and create a family album. Be sure to label each photograph with names and dates.

- Start a family archive. Collect items that are important to you and your family. Examples could be:

- Birthday cards
- Birth certificates
- Ticket stubs
- Programs from events that you attended
- Report cards
- Letters
- Recipes
- Certificates of achievement and diplomas

- Interview family members (oral history).
Make a videotape and/or audiotape.

Be sure to store everything someplace that's not too hot, dusty, or damp, and away from bright light.*
