*Calandrelli, Emily. Ada Lace, On the Case, 2017. JFIC
Eight-year-old Ada, who has a knack for science, math, and solving mysteries, teams up with her best friend, Nina, to find a missing dog.

*Griffiths, Andy. The 52-Story Treehouse, 2016. JFIC
Andy and Terry try to solve the mystery of what happened to Mr. Big Nose? After all, it's hard to turn in your next book when your publisher has vanished.

Johnson, Varian. The Parker Inheritance, 2018. JFIC
Twelve-year-old Candice Miller is spending the summer in Lambert, South Carolina, in the old house that belonged to her grandmother, who died after being dismissed as city manager for having the city tennis courts dug up looking for buried treasure—but when she finds the letter that sent her grandmother on the treasure hunt, she finds herself caught up in the mystery and, with the help of her new friend and fellow book-worm, Brandon, she sets out to find the inheritance, exonerate her grandmother, and expose an injustice once committed against an African American family in Lambert.

Patterson, James. Ali Cross, 2019. JFIC
Published to coincide with the release of the 25th entry in Patterson’s best-selling Alex Cross thrillers, a series debut starring Alex’s son, Ali, follows his desperate search for a missing friend and clues proving his father’s innocence against a backdrop of neighborhood burglaries.

Smith, Nikki Shannon. The Amazing Life of Azaleah Lane, 2020. JFIC
Azaleah can't wait for her class field trip to the National Zoo in Washington D.C., especially when her teacher announces the chance to earn extra credit, but she quickly realizes extra credit isn't as easy as she thought. Azaleah's younger sister Tiana can't find Greenie, her stuffed animal, and she's sure he's been stolen. With Mama at the restaurant and Daddy at work on a big case, it seems Azaleah is the only one available to track down the stolen stuffed animal.
